Backyard Bash to bring the community together

GREEN BAY, Wis. – Thursday, September 3 will mark the beginning of a new academic year for students, faculty and staff at the University of Wisconsin-Green Bay. To celebrate this new beginning, the Ecumenical Center and the UWGB Alumni Association will partner to host a campus-wide picnic.

The picnic – or – Backyard Bash will bring together the members of the university community for free food, live music, yard games, the Ecumenical Center open house, and great conversations.

This annual event is expected to draw hundreds, and it will feature some of the area's most promising musicians, including Mike Casey and Z-man's Acoustic Show.

The event, which is open to the entire university community, is scheduled to start at 5:30 pm, with formal program to begin at 6 pm in the backyard of the Ecumenical Center. The rain site will be inside the Center.
